....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue an order or direction more particularly one in the nature of writ of Mandamus, directing the respondents to give preference to the petitioner as per the orders of this Hon'ble Court in w.P.No.18906/98 dt.18.8.1998 and appoint the petitioner to the post of Attender in the existing vacancies on consideration of the past service of the petitioner and pass such other order or orders.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.S.A.K.MYNUDDIN

Counsel for the Respondent No.: MR.C.V.NAGARAJA REDDY

The Court at the admission stage made the following :

ORAL ORDER: (per the Hon'ble the Chief Justice)

The petitioner's own case is that on 8.10.2003 he has approached the District Judge with a request that the orders of this Court dated 18.8.1998 in W.P.No.18906 of 1998 have to be implemented by giving due preference, as per the guidelines of the High Court, while considering him for being appointed to the post of Attender as per the latest advertisement.

There is no reason why the petitioner's representation will not be duly considered by the District Judge and in case if the petitioner is entitled to be appointed to the said post, his case will be considered as prayed for. It is not the petitioner's case that appointments have been made and that his representation was not considered so far. The writ petition is premature and it is accordingly dismissed.
